

La Menitre. An exhibition on Camille Lepage to see until June 6

Maryvonne Lepage presented and commented on the work of her daughter, who died in 2014 at the age of 26 in the Central African Republic. | OUEST-FRANCEView slideshow

West-France Posted on 05/27/2022 at 05:31

The cultural space of La Ménière hosts, until June 6, 70 prints by Camille Lepage, this Angevin war photographer killed in the Central African Republic in 2014 during a report. 70 photos of great mastery, often violent, showing the horrors of war.

This exhibition takes place as part of the 20th anniversary of the Pefab association for school sponsorship and agricultural training in Burkina Faso. It is supplemented by a presentation of the action of the association which, to date, has enabled more than 130 young Africans to train and stay in the country and a philatelic presentation on these countries of the Central African Republic.

Until June 6, at the cultural space. Free admission on Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m.

